Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Terry Baloun has been engaged in the banking industry for 30 years; and,

Whereas, Terry has witnessed many changes and has been instrumental in creating the sound financial and economic environment South Dakotan's enjoy today; and,

Whereas, Terry has given freely of his time and energy to the community as well, through his service to numerous boards, which include the Sioux Valley Hospitals & Health System, Carroll Institute, Washington Pavilion of Arts and Science, Business Leadership Council, Sioux Falls Development Foundation, Sioux Empire United Way, South Dakota Chamber of Commerce & Industry, South Dakota Heritage Fund, and Sioux Council Boy Scouts of America; and,

Whereas, The citizens in and around the Sioux Falls community, as well as the state, will always be grateful for Terry's efforts to make Sioux Falls the Minnesota Vikings' new training camp home; and,

Whereas, Terry and his wife, Sheryl, have two sons, Shad and Brett, and his plans to retire on May 1, 2004, will provide him an opportunity to enjoy time with his family and some well deserved leisure activities; and,

Whereas, Terry's colleagues at Wells Fargo Bank will gather on April 29, 2004, to honor and thank him for his dedication and commitment to an extremely successful and prestigious career:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family, friends, colleagues, and customers in wishing him well and thanking him for sharing his time and many talents with others.

TERRY BALOUN DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State